

“ Inspection of Working Conditions in Taiwan’s Distant Water Fisheries ”

Shao-Chun Fisheries Agency
Ministry of Agriculture, Taiwan

16th April, 2024

FA · MOA

農業部漁業署

Fisheries Agency, Ministry of Agriculture

Outline

1 Types

2 Items

3 Locations

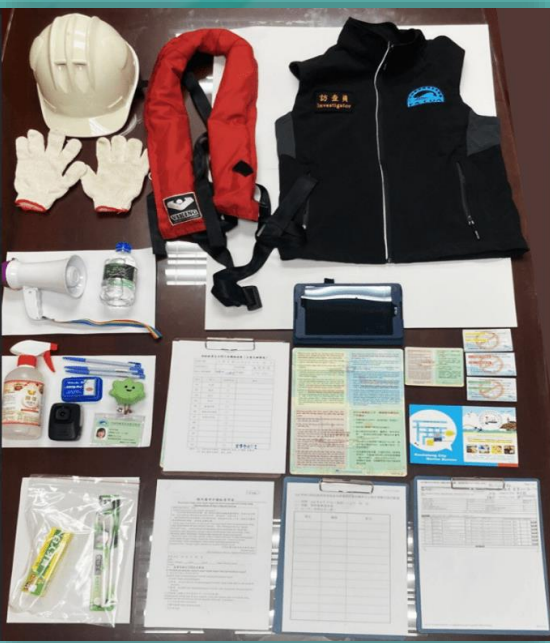

4 Capacity Building

5 Conclusion

1 Type

Taiwan Flag

Foreign Flag

0
1

Fisheries Agency

0
1

Cross-Authorities

0
2

Working Condition

0
2

Working Condition

0
3

Notice Operator

0
3

Notice Flag State

2 Item

Onboard Inspection

Living Facilities

Safety Equipment

Grievance Channel

Medical Supplies

Interview

Wage

Working Hour

Contract

Medical care

Living Condition

Operator
/Agent

Contract

Insurance Document

List of Wages

Attendance Record

Service Record

3 Location

 Domestic Port

 Foreign Port

 Third-Parties

Busan

Marshall

Trinidad

Colombo

Singapore

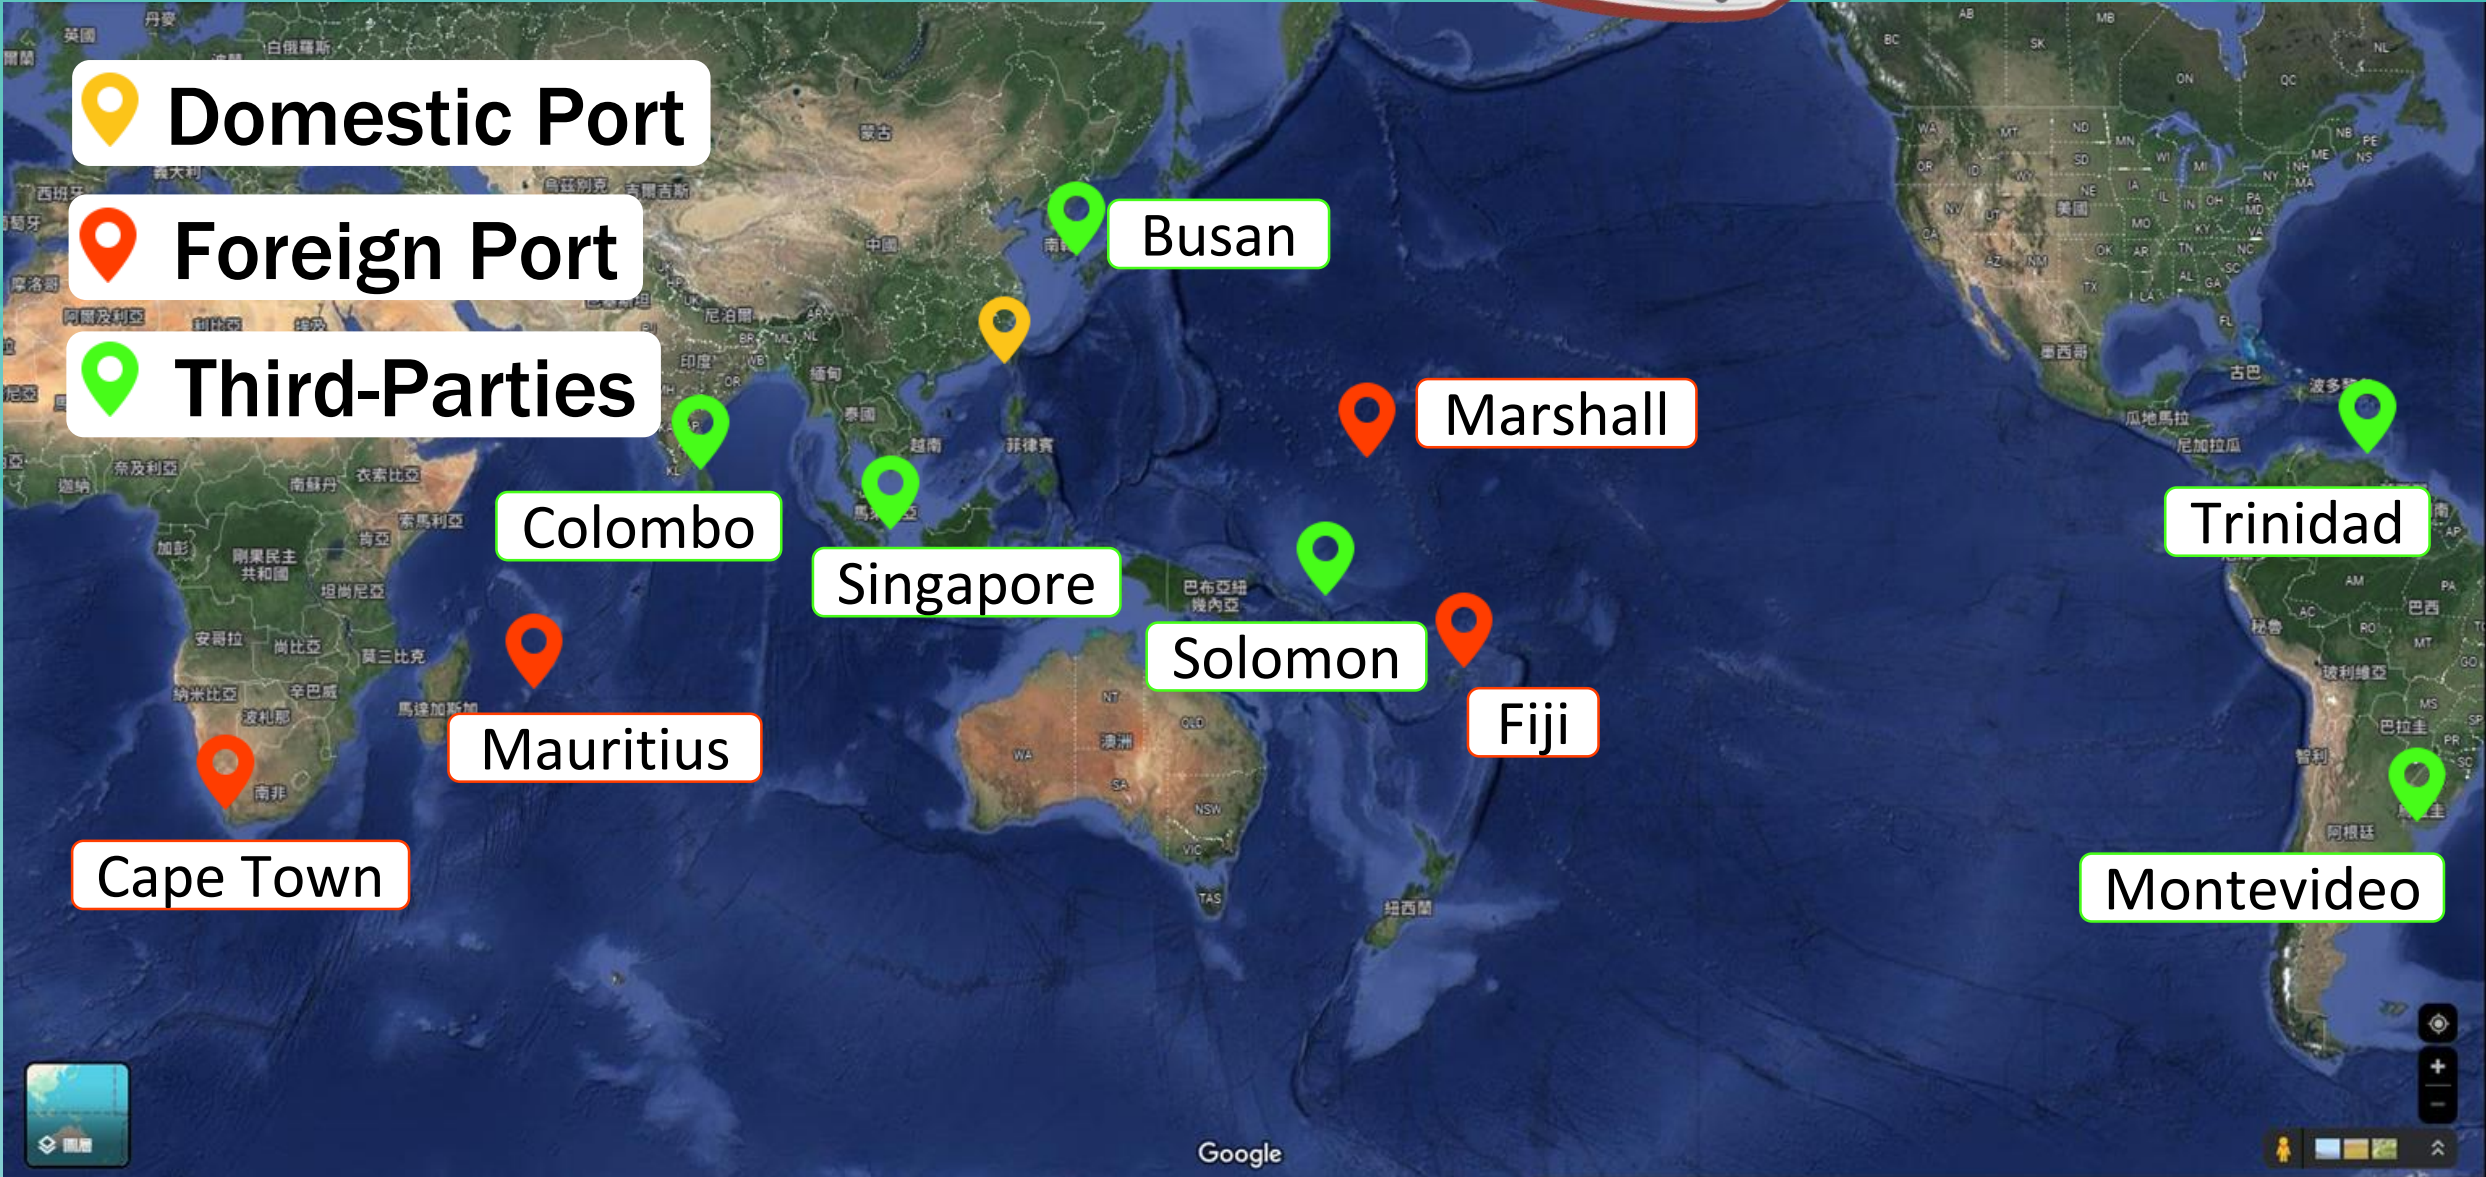

Solomon

Fiji

Mauritius

Cape Town

Montevideo

4 Capacity Building

Relevant authorities assist in education, training to level up knowledge & skills

Online lectures by international experts from EU, Netherlands, South Africa

Training courses offered by the International Training Centre of the ILO

Respected Selwyn Bailey, SAMSA

- Inspections can enhance compliance, ensure working conditions, and reduce disputes.
- C188 mandates members establish a system to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Convention. Therefore, it will require more inter-agency cooperation

